

Across

- 1 Out of Scotch spirit - and sherry too? (8)
- 7 Silver in a fraud, to be met on the Spanish main (4)
- 10 Poet who shows right way to win Cynthia back? (10)
- 12 Catherine-wheel needs reloading after exploding (9)
- 13 It has a bridge: you'll see goings on under it (4)
- 15 Coming into tin, to enjoy life, come into sin? (6)
- 16 Drink - after a tankard I'll get merry (9)
- 17 Trail slowly back after do in Gargantuans' Club? (6)
- 18 Thames expert finds the Ganges perplexing (6)
- 19 Kindly spirit in the beak? Quite the reverse (6)
- 22 Climbs in Grampians - relaxes on the way hack (6)
- 24 Something good for taking off weight in the pm (6)
- 25 A little carbon leads to sounder back teeth (6)
- 27 Gosh, the crooked Dickensian lawyer's heart (4)

- 29 Old sort of embroidery work round about a modern undergarment is boring (9)
- 30 The profligate sees it rapt (10)
- 31 One might read this in antiquated Danish (4)
- 32 Excuses regarded as sauce in old servants (8)

- 5 Impresses approval, or expresses disapproval (6)
- 6 It's a pity to put on fine stuff that's old (6)
- 7 Bouncers won't do for the Eton and Harrow match (4)
- 8 Old soldier, one quite apathetic among girls (10)
- 9 Nothing to write on the point, being obvious (8)

- 15 Being astute about sexiness helps one to appreciate a foreign film (8)
- 20 This sectarian has butter on both sides of the first two bits of bread (6)
- 21 flowerpot man got up as a knight in Bacchic garb (6)
- 22 Does away with rags: shines without polish (6)
- 23 An old stunt in the Post Office - by express (6)
- 26 To Sharpen one may cause a nasty prick (4)
- 28 Their grandparents are Scots, let me tell you (4)

Down

- 1 Pluck, a great asset for a slow bowler (4)
- 2 He commits croonings that are discordant (9)
- 3 I got taken in by an old swindler, ex-diplomatist (6)
- 4 Country marketing run by a junior employee (6)

- 11 Shocking man acting as manager, a perfect fool (10)
- 14 One of a breakfast party, upset in twice being served with bad egg, got short (9)