

Across

- 1. AKA Triton, ICS malware that shut down Saudi petrochemical plant (6)
- 3. Amazon's personal assistant (or surveillance) device (5)
- 5. Mountain Lion is its most famous OS (3)
- 7. white, black, or gray item (3)
- 8. old web attack still in use (4)
- 11. software security, for short (6)
- 12. Fancy, Cozy, or Energetic (4)
- 13. what attackers do with SIM cards? (4)
- 15. log in (12)
- 18. ransomware known for long dwell time, human operators, that took down Tribune Publishing (4)
- 20. Jackson Higgins or Sheridan (5)
- 21. the R in RSA (6)
- 23. ransomware strain or a nice place to be (8)
- 25. vuln being exploited in-the-wild (7)
- 27. home base for security first responders (3)
- 28. Def or Shmoo (3)
- 29. type of biometric scanner (11)
- 31. something you have too many of (6)
- 34. embedded systems security researcher Ruben (10)

- 36. European privacy law (4)
- 37. way to head off privacy snafus (3)
- 38. microprocessor vulnerability (7)
- 39. PoisonIvy, Dark Comet, or Blackshades (3)
- 40. revealer of vulns on Patch Tuesday (9)
- 8. California privacy law (4)
- 9. the Feds (3)
- 10. key part of recovery efforts (7)
- 14. wireless security protocol (3)
- 16. AKA Trisis, ICS malware threatening US power grid (6)
- 17. might "borrow" bandwidth to dig for Bitcoin (11)
- 18. team that finds your weak links (3)
- 19. Elsa, or a breached cruise line (8)
- 20. object needed to encrypt data or sing well (3)
- 22. exploitable software bug, for short (4)
- 24. Apple's mobile operating system (3)
- 25. rigorous security architecture (9)
- 26. individual who menaces your network (8)
- 30. Source of nation-state actors Oilrig, Charming Kitten and APT39 (4)
- 32. Dark Reading features section (4)
- 33. Apache framework exploited in Equifax breach (6)
- 35. sophisticated attack group, for short (3)
- 37. data security standard for payments (3)

Down

- 1. state that didn't pay ransom (5)
- 2. firm that bought Carbon Black in 2019 (6)
- 4. ever-popular web app flaw, for short (3)
- 6. Bank that exposed 100M customers in 2019 in an S3 bucket leak (10)
- 7. healthcare privacy law (5)