

Literary Field Guide: Birds in Book Titles

Across

- 1 Mrs. Aesop, but with nursery rhymes?
- 8 Can be found on dirty ponds and sinks
- 9 "Ode to a Nightingale" is one
- 10 Atticus Finch said people should not kill one
- 11 Another word for 16 Across?
- 14 A. Hitchcock's "The Birds" was this version of the book by Daphne du Maurier
- 16 According to Ken Kesey, one flew over its nest
- 18 They might be friends with pussy-cats and go to sea in beautiful pea-green boats
- 20 Basic letters of the alphabet
- 21 If James Bond villain combined with mythology book guy they'd be this bird
- 25 They were lonesome, according to L. McMurtry's four book series
- 26 It was ugly, but turned into a swan
- 27 Runs batted in

- 28 Baltimore football team named after E.A. Poe's poem
- 29 Environmental prefix
- 30 Dr. Bird had advice for these sorts of poets
- 31 Female chicken
- 32 What a toucan might be called

Down

- 4 This lizard sells insurance
- 5 Jonathan Livingston
- 6 One Arizona pro football player (2 wds)
- 7 Edward was one and so was Edwina. Largest native Australian bird
- 9 John Grisham's was a brief
- 12 Tom Robbins had a still life with one
- 13 He led a band of merry men
- 15 Katniss Everdeen's bird
- 17 Maya Angelou knew why it sang
- 19 What a loud person might hear
- 22 Its soup is good for the soul
- 23 Dashiell Hammett's was Maltese
- 24 The theme of this puzzle
- 26 According to 1 Across, it ran away with the spoon