

Across

- 1 Picture postcard riverside village along the Dordogne river with tropical banana plants and palm trees; orage claquage (anagram) (2,5-6)
- 5 Raise your verre to make a toast (eng) (5)
- 7 Oil with a nutty quality used in cooking (eng) (6)
- 8 How many cents make a euro? (fr) (4)
- 9 The place to buy your viande; (fr) (9)
- 11 At which station was France's biggest train robbery in 1944 (carried out by the resistance)? (6,4)
- 14 If food is too sale it is inedible (eng) (5)

Down

- 18 Un ... au feu; a winter warming meat dish (fr) (3)
- 19 This town (Upper Périgord) is famous for its knives which have boxwood handles (7)
- 22 Maintenant; présentement; aujourd'hui (eng) (3)
- 23 The best prunes in France are grown here (4)
- 24 Drink usually served before dinner (8)
- 25 The go?t of your food will determine how good it is (5)
- 26 A furry burrower (garden pest)(fr); brown (eng) (5)

Down

- 2 A white wine produced in the Bergerac AOC region; a wine grape variety; a small flower design (7)
- 3 Pamplemousse is a fruit often eaten for breakfast (eng) (10)
- 4 Piece of cutlery (fr) (7)
- 6 Sauce made of garlic and olive oil used as a sauce for fish (fr) (5)
- 8 Salted cabillaud becomes morue (eng) (3)
- 10 Just another dent in the wheel; une personne insignifiante (eng) (3)
- 12 The english abbreviation for taxe sur la valeur ajoutée; a large container (eng) (3)

Down

- 13 Popeye's favourite vegetable (fr) (7)
- 14 Roderick David (born in London) used to have a house in the Dordogne, he had various hits including Maggie May (7)
- 15 The best things in life are free; indépendant (fr) (5)
- 16 Cèpe mushrooms (7)
- 17 Famous truffle market in January for gastronomes where you can find out about the "black diamond" truffle at the museum; grosse (anagram) (6)
- 20 Without épice your food is likely to taste bland (eng) (5)
- 21 The devil lives in a place on fire (fr) (5)