

Across

- 1Entrouvert is when the door is half open (eng) (4)
- 6The ground or soil that you walk on (fr) (3)
- 8Famous roman baths in Deauville where celebrities like all the pomp and circumstance; main pope (anagram) (8)
- 10The Surrealist artist, Marcel, came from the Seine Maritime area; he was a forerunner of the New York school of painting (7)
- 11Personnel; professeurs; baton (eng) (5)
- 12In 1945 this harbour was Europe's most damaged river and seaport (2,5)
- 15The Americans landed on this french beach in 1944; southern US state with large mormon population (4)

- 16This town has the largest artificial harbour in the world; an expensive market town (?) (9)
- 19Beaucoup; tres; pas pres (fr) (4)
- 21Patte; pied; cuisse; jambe (eng) (3)
- 22This French coast looks like the white cliffs of Dover; white material used in sculpture (9)
- 24Unique; rare; solitaire; alone (fr) (4)
- 25Monet's huge water lilies can be seen in this Paris museum which was formerly a royal greenhouse in the Tuilerie Gardens (9)
- 26Percherons are a type of thoroughbred; a chevalier would have had one (eng) (6)

Down

- 2The water garden and bridge in Monet's garden were inspired by the designs of this far Eastern country (5)
- 3Bruit; formuler (un expression) (fr) (4)
- 4Small french change; penny; one hundred (fr) (4)
- 5French Normandy port; bar with a flower? (8)
- 7Alencon was famous for this needlecraft; delicate needlepoint used in clothes, curtains and tableware (eng) (10)
- 9Monet diverted a branch of this River to create a water garden with its famous water lily pond (4)
- 10Elegant resort which holds the Grand Prix, polo world championships, horse

racine and the American film festival (9)

- 13The Musee d'Art near Monet's house contains works by Artists mainly from this country (7)
- 14Vetement; costume; habit (fr) (4)
- 16An aperitif made from apples; (8)
- 17Claude Monet lived in this village from 1883 until his death (8)
- 18Muscular french bivalves, best eaten with frites (fr) (6)
- 20Legend has it that Walt, the legendary American cartoonist, is a descendant of the Norman family, d'Isigny (6)
- 23Os; one of 206 that we have in the body (eng) (4)