

Across

2 Saintry Island with a Cornish twin? (4,2,6)

6 Title held by Henry II in the 12th Century (fr) (3)

7 Fluffy animal kept as pets or used to make stew (fr) (5)

9 In this place; at this point; now; at this juncture (fr) (3)

11 Beauty spot; conservation area; archeological place; place on web (eng/fr) (4)

12 The hot months of the year (fr) (3)

14 Blague; plaisanterie (fr/eng) (3)

16 Your thirst for classical music may be satiated by Erik who spent most of his youth in Honfleur (5)

17 Art gallery in Honfleur named after Eugene and devoted to his landscapes masterpieces and the Impressionists; type of sausage (fr) (6)

18 Street; road (fr) (3)

19 This container and spade will keep your child happy at the beach (fr) (4)

21 Dirty; polluted; immoral (fr) (4)

24 A coastal resort (a bit of a dive?); a place to jump into the sea? (5-3-3)

27 Famous composer, Maurice, who wrote music in Le Fresne, one of the old mansions of Lyons-La-Foret (5)

28 "goutte" known as the disease of kings; something to do with taste perhaps? (eng) (4)

30 If you don't know the answer just demande it (fr) (3)

31 Victor Hugo was exiled from his native France in 1851 and lived on this small island off northern France (8)

Down

1 Sweet or savoury treat for Mardi Gras (fr/eng) (5)

2 One thousand (fr) (5)

3 A somme or small sieste will revitalise you (eng) (3)

4 A perfect gathering to say your prayers (fr) (5)

5 Manor houses or residence of the lord of the manor, some with fortifications (fr) (8)

8 This cathedral of our lady in Rouen is one of the most beautiful examples of French Gothic architecture (5,4)

10 These islands lie much nearer to France than to England but are linked with the English Crown (7)

13 Andouille is a local speciality using this part of a pig (some people can't stomach it) (eng) (10)

15 Haute Normandie consists of the departements of Seine-Maritime and ... (4)

20 Tu is the familiar (eng) (3)

22 Confession; admission of guilt (fr) (4)

23 The brulures from fire are painful (eng) (5)

25 Message; signal (fr) (5)

26 You could be on the road to ruin if you shop in the capital of Upper Normandy (5)

29 Every child has at least one favourite jouet (eng) (3)