

Across

- 7 This Canterbury town is known for its thermal pools, mineral waters and proximity to ski slopes. (6,7)
- 8 Opening in Wellington on 28 June 1920, the Alexander _____ Library is one of 3 libraries amalgamated in 1965 to form the National Library of New Zealand. (8)
- 9 A fever with successive stages of fever and chills especially when caused by malaria. (4)
- 10 In baking, this is a rich, thick filling or frosting of heavy cream and chocolate. (7)
- 12 See 14
- 14/12 Irish poet and playwright known for plays such as The Importance of Being Earnest and for his novel The Picture of Dorian Gray. (5,5)
- 16 Close connection between people marked by common interests or similarity in nature or character. (7)

- 19 In many computer programs and mobile device apps, this function is represented by an arrow circling in an anticlockwise direction. (4)
- 20 The first issue of popular current affairs magazine The New Zealand _____ was published on June 30 1939. (8)
- 22 In late June 1914, NZ press broke news of the _____ of Archduke Franz Ferdinand, an act that precipitated World War One. (13)

Down

- 1 In te reo Māori, this is a word for a bird or any other winged creature. (4)
- 2 English media personality, actress and singer _____ Holden is particularly known as a judge on the Britain's Got Talent TV show. (6)

- 3 American comedian, actor, writer, and singer Julius Henry Marx was better known as _____. (7)
- 4 This town and mining field in South Australia is the source of most of the world's production of these gemstones. (5)
- 5 _____ Bay is a suburb of Porirua which, during WWII, was the site of an American military personnel camp. (6)
- 6 "Lamb of God", or _____ (in Latin), is a key section in most settings of the Catholic Mass. (5,3)
- 11 A person found guilty of deliberately setting fire to a building or vehicle. (8)
- 13 A family of herbs

whose thick forked aromatic roots have been used as a traditional medicine in China and North America. (7)

- 15 A warm waterproof hip-length jacket usually with a hood, originally worn in Arctic regions. (6)
- 17 This Spanish word for a nap in the early afternoon derives from a Latin term meaning sixth hour (or noon). (6)
- 18 A bottle with a narrow neck, especially one used in laboratories or to carry wine or liquor. (5)
- 21 In the Star Wars movies, an _____ is one of the small furry biped beings that inhabit the Forest Moon of Endor. (4)