

Across

- 1 In the taxonomy of organisms, this grouping is ranked directly above phylum. (7)
- 5 In Te reo Māori, this word means house, building or dwelling. (5)
- 8 In the ill-fated Terra Nova expedition to Antarctica (1910-1913), Lawrence _____ walked from the tent in a blizzard and met his death. (5)
- 9 A voice or a piece of music that rises and falls pleasingly and in a regular or rhythmic way. (7)
- 10 When the first State House was opened on 18 September 1937, most of the _____ helped the first tenants to move in. (6,7)
- 11 A dose of liquid medicine given to an animal. (6)
- 12 Any spherical or nearly spherical bacteria. (6)
- 15 _____ Day commemorates the presentation to parliament on 14 September 1972 of a petition to save Te reo Māori. (5,8)
- 18 Units of weight used in the Ancient world, particularly for weighing gold and silver. (7)
- 19 In musical scores, this term indicates that the instrument or voice in question is to remain silent for a particular section. (5)
- 20 French composer Maurice _____ is associated with Impressionism in music and is best known for his orchestral work Boléro. (5)
- 21 This small rural community in the Rotorua Lakes District is located about 40km northeast of Taupo. (7)
- breakdown of normal or beneficial relationships between members of a group (especially a family). (13)
- 4 The desire to inflict injury, harm, or suffering on another. (6)
- 5 Descriptive of a person who is very polite because they have been taught good manners. (4-7-2)
- 6 In law, this is a term for someone who is not a legal citizen of the country in which they live. (5)
- 7 These fractions are the result of halving a whole (and any subsequent fractions) three times over. (7)
- 11 In Greek mythology, _____ is the goddess of agricultural fertility and protector of marriage and women. (7)
- 13 This 14th century English poet and author is best known for his magnum opus, The Canterbury Tales. (7)
- 14 A German title for an emperor, derived from the ancient Roman title with a similar meaning. (6)
- 16 Prince Grigory Grigoryevich _____ was a favourite of the Empress Catherine the Great of Russia. (5)
- 17 An actor or person temporarily employed in the filming of a movie, often for crowd scenes. (5)

Down

- 1 A small low hill with gentle slopes and a rounded top. (5)
- 2 Worthy of attention due to being interesting, significant or unusual. (7)
- 3 Characterized by a
- 4 A German title for an