

Across

7. Saint Augustine defined this as speaking falsehood with the intention of deceiving

10. Richer nations must work hard for international ____

11. Pleasing others so they can carry out your wishes

13. Jesus teaches that we should desire him ____, and his Father's kingdom, and then he will give us all that we need

14. The Church has the Christ-commissioned ____ to take his Gospel and show people how his message should make a difference in the lives of people

15. Sadness over another person's possessions and the inordinate desire to get them for oneself

18. One of the four key themes of Catholic social teaching is that ____ cannot be the only norm and sole goal of economic activity

21. The economy exists to ____ people; people do not exist to ____ the economy (same word in both blanks)

22. Giving excessive admiration to someone

23. Paying someone a compliment to gain a favor

Down

1. Lying about others so people will make false judgments about them

2. A type of justice that governs what individuals owe society as a whole

3. The desire to accumulate unlimited goods

4. Circumspect, diplomatic, guarded, prudent, tactful

5. Hiding something by pretense

6. The Seventh

Commandment deals with ____ desires

8. Revealing a person's faults and failings to someone who did not previously know about them and who had no need or right to know about them

9. The value underlying the Seventh Commandment is respect for the ____ rights of others

12. God made us ____ of creation

16. The passionate desire for riches and the power that comes from them

17. The Tenth Commandment deals with ____ desires

18. We must imitate Jesus by having a special love for the ____

19. The Old Testament teaches that God is the source of ____

20. For where your treasure is, there also will your ____ be