

First Women in Public Health -- August 2022

Across

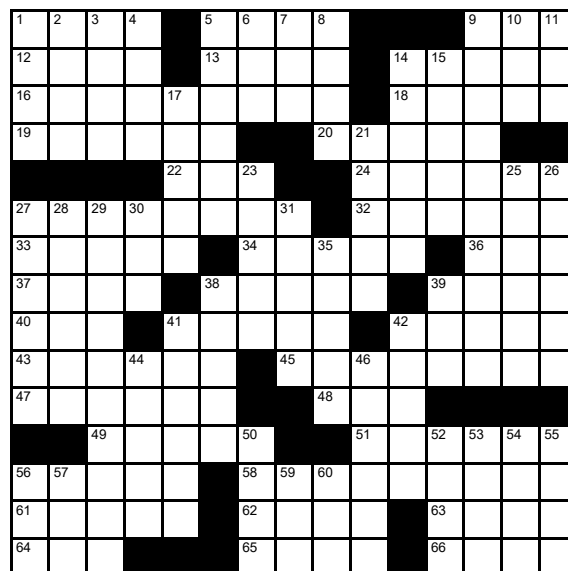

1. "___ be a cold day..."
5. Gadot and others
9. One of the words in OMG
12. For a circle, it's (pi)(r-squared)
13. Mine entrance
14. Change, as the Constitution
16. First (and current) woman dean of first U.S. school of public health: Ellen _____
18. Fortuneteller's card
19. Decapitate
20. Chocolate substitute
22. Greek symbol for correlation coefficient
24. Least

27. Obama's first woman Secretary of HHS: Kathleen _____
32. Hades' Egyptian counterpart
33. "Moveit!"
34. Site of treaty ending War of 1812
36. Dr. of rap
37. Fever and chills
38. Flip-flop part
39. Scuttlebutt
40. Barbie's beau
41. "___ the tailor told ten tall tales to Titania the titmouse" (Roman emperor)
42. ___ Scott College in Decatur, GA (US News & World Reports' Most Innovative College)
43. Tailback sprints with ball around the row of linemen
45. Site of U.S. Public Health Service's infamous study of syphilis
47. What you get back on an investment
48. How most of us refer to our profession
49. Country between Egypt and Algeria

51. Discordant
56. Billy Joel's instrument
58. First woman Director of NIH: _____ Healy
61. First name of a Big Four accounting firm
62. Loose-lipped aide or cracked pipe causes this
63. Lodges
64. Manuscript reviewer's pen color, classically
65. U.S. trees decimated by a Dutch disease
66. Like The Odd Couple's Felix, not Oscar

Down

1. Du-DUH, in poetry
2. Atlanta Hawks' Young point guard
3. Shipyard worker who ended Communism in Poland
4. Titicaca, for one
5. First woman Prime Minister of India
6. Cutting tool
7. Number of cards in a deck, Roman style
8. E. coli O157:H7 is one (abbr.)

9. First woman Director of CDC: Julie _____
10. She participated in a Bed-in for Peace in 1969
11. Insecticide banned in U.S. but not worldwide
14. Not in motion, in Newton's first law
15. Native New Zealander
17. Before the due date
21. In the company of
23. Should, with "to"
25. "Yes, _____, Bob!"
26. It transmits the agent of African Sleeping Sickness
27. Salt dispenser
28. Oregon city nicknamed the "Running Capital of the World"
29. First woman Director General of WHO: Gro _____
30. Middle of famous palindrome about Elba
31. Name of song with lyrics "A little bit softer now" and "A little bit louder now"
35. Occur afterwards
38. Sounding thin and metallic
39. Three-letter combination at the end of a word that makes a J sound
41. Type of flat fish
42. Japanese dog
44. Ubiquitous legacy of Roman occupation
46. Homophone of Sara Blakely's company
50. Ready and willing's partner
52. Thor's father
53. Number of planets in our solar system, before Pluto's demotion
54. Female first name of Tolstoy title
55. "___ we forget"
56. What the forward slash means in "deaths / 100,000 population / year"
57. Wrath
59. Moray is one type
60. Aries, for one