

Rather Moving

Across

- 1 Class gets student to move two pieces (6)
- 5 Move abroad: the French are so cute! (8)
- 9 Move out, admitting new house without sides is very bad for the health (8)
- 10 Called halt to band with relief? (6)
- 11 Put cereal on tongue in audition for booze (4,6)
- 12 Trial some boxing to boot (4)
- 13 Get up in church, passionate to convert man into saint (8)
- 16 Extremely dehydrated, break stride (6)
- 17 Refuse to get cross with society for people on the move (6)

- 19 Full of suspense waiting for delivery (8)
- 21 Flies? Flies! (4)
- 22 Showing restraint at breakfast...by midday I bust some moves (10)
- 25 Move goods out of tunnel towards Reading regularly (6)
- 26 Motion carried: motorway relay (8)
- 27 Inopportune Alf will bring it back at sea (3-5)
- 28 Moving tribute to 'Miss Essence of Dairy Spread' (6)

Down

- 2 In short: do not apply to Gladiators here (5)
- 3 Might be landed with tickling front of tummy, then licking (5)

- 4 Wearing away at painful spot, raised drugs on a drip (7)
- 5 US Rear-Lieutenant impounds gold mug (7)
- 6 Lacking utilities, turned empty housing back to outbuilding (3-4)
- 7 American people viewed around a million moving pictures (9)
- 8 'Move it round to get your food' unlikely to work on tin cans, Uncle Sam! (4,5)
- 14 Eroica's first movement has Alf almost in tears (9)
- 15 Move top in table tennis, say, having sprinted (9)
- 18 Without hesitation, Labour leader carries party to glory (7)

- 19 Moved, I sped to resort (7)
- 20 She's fleeced young dumb male wearing turned-up trousers (3,4)
- 23 Prime Minister's letters lead to Tory leader being placed in the bigger picture (5)
- 24 Become one with one with one... finally! (5)