

Across

- 1 Opened in 2011, Dunedin's fully covered stadium is named after local investment and wealth management services firm _____ Barr. (7)
- 5 To shape clay on a potter's wheel. (5)
- 8 A variety of pea plant which produces green peas and crisp rounded pods that are delicious to eat. (5,4)
- 9/12 Released on 15 December 1995, this song by South Auckland group OMC became one of the most successful songs ever recorded in NZ. (3,7)
- 10 Originating in Finland, this form of bath involves exposure to hot steamy air. (5)
- 12 See 9
- 13 This American film production company was founded in 1919 by Charlie Chaplin, D.W. Griffith, Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks.

(6,7)

- 15 A dialect of Old and Middle English spoken in the UK county popularly known as the Garden of England. (7)
- 17 A shrub or small tree of the genus Syringa which has large sprays of flowers, frequently of a pale purple colour. (5)
- 19/18 An ancient Latin expression still sometimes used as an acknowledgement of guilt. (3,5)
- 20 To make markings or perforations on a postal stamp before it is attached to mail in order to prevent further use of that stamp. (9)
- 22 A variety of wine grape originally grown in Hungary. (5)
- 23 In marine environments, this term can refer to something that is far from the coast or a long way down from the surface. (4-3)

Down

- 1 Abstains from eating all or certain foods, typically for religious or medical reasons, or as a protest. (5)
- 2 Also known as 'lemon fish' and spotted dogfish, these small sharks are found in coastal waters all around New Zealand. (3)
- 3 A term for a length or distance measured (in the Imperial measurement system). (7)
- 4 To be at risk or be very likely to fail soon. (4,2,1,6)
- 5 A white or colourless mineral often tinted by impurities and used as a gemstone (usually of a yellowish-brown colour). (5)
- 6 A practice session in preparation for a public performance. (9)
- 7 Extremely puritanical persons who may be regarded as killjoys or spoilsports (Aus and NZ slang). (7)

- 11 This national flag, designed in 1801, combines the crosses of Saint George, Saint Patrick and Saint Andrew. (5,4)
- 13 Descriptive of something that is not properly maintained, or looks untidy or dishevelled. (7)
- 14 Arable land that is worked by ploughing and sowing and raising crops. (7)
- 16 To indicate or express something indirectly or by allusion. (5)
- 18 See 19 Across
- 21 Of or relating to people whose gender identity fully corresponds to their birth sex. (3)