

Indyword - Across Borders and Shores

Across

- 1 When you're wronged, and it's time to seek justice, this legal action may be your next move, especially if your name rhymes with 'glue'. (3)
- 2 School's ultimate test of your brainpower, where pencils scribble and brains get sour. (4)
- 6 When clothes don't fit or vows need saying anew, this place is where you go to say 'I do' (5)
- 8 Start your day the right way, with pancakes, eggs, and more, it's the meal you eat when you hear the rooster's loud... (9)
- 10 Taking things without asking, like a sneaky raccoon in a midnight tasking. (3)
- 11 Mooing through fields, providing milk with grace, it's the gentle giant with a black and white face. (3)
- 12 Where stories come alive with actors on stage, it's where you go for drama, laughter, and rage. (7)
- 14 Lost in a sea of faces, but not alone, you're _____ friends, family, and even a friendly groan. (5)
- 15 When manners reign and tempers stay cool, society's at its best, and that's the rule! (5)
- 16 When you're moving a lot of stuff, it's not a truck, but smaller, and you're in luck! (3)
- 18 Wherever you go, this word follows, spanning across borders and shores, it's the prefix for something that's not just local but... (13)
- 22 In class, it's small and

- black, not the teacher, but in the back. (5)
- 23 When things get odd, and it's hard to arrange, you're in a world where everything's a bit... (7)
- 25 When you're listing things but don't want to fuss, just throw in this trio, and it's a wrap for us! (3)
- 26 When you believe you deserve the crown, this verb declares your royal noun. (7)
- 28 When life throws lemons at your face, this verb helps you handle the race. (4)
- 29 When you owe for service, small or grand, this little sum is what you hand. (3)
- 30 When you need water to flow, just give this a little... (3)
- 31 When soldiers unite in a force so strong, they're marching together, singing their song. (4)

Down

- 1 When something's big, not small at all, it's this word, standing tall. (11)

- 3 When numbers dance and problems fly, this subject makes your brain reach for the sky. (11)
- 4 When counting starts but there's nothing in sight, this little digit keeps things light. (4)
- 5 When words and pictures come together to engage, it's a colorful source of stories on every page. (8)
- 7 When boats line up in water's flow, it's not a fight, just a friendly... (3)
- 9 When you're in a place where you don't belong, where words are strange and accents are strong. (7)
- 11 When your mind's a scattered mess, this verb helps you ace that test. (11)
- 13 Where waves dance and seagulls play, it's a vast expanse of blue, they say. (3)
- 16 When help is needed, without a fee, you step up gladly, you're a... (9)
- 17 When you're saying 'not this, not that,' it's a little word that wears a hat. (3)
- 19 When chatter fills the air and minds collide, it's the main dish on which discussions ride. (5)
- 20 When something's broken, or simply out of grace, bring in the new to take the old one's... (7)
- 21 When dreams take over and the world's a haze, you're not awake, you're in a drowsy... (6)
- 24 When boxes are bare and rooms are clear, there's nothing left, not even a... (5)
- 25 When whispers tickle or music's near, it's where sound waves love to disappear. (3)
- 27 When fish are caught or balls are stopped, it's a handy tool that's never flopped. (3)