

Across

- 1 RAF name for the American P-36 (6)
- 4 Bomber and troop transport retired in 1944 (6)
- 6 Despite scoring the first WW2 aerial victory for the RAF, this disappointing type was withdrawn from front line service in 1940 (6)
- 7 Variant of the Hawker Hart originally intended for operations in Iraq (5)
- 8 Turret-armed fighter built by Boulton Paul (7)
- 9 Torpedo bomber from which the Blenheim was developed (8)
- 15 American-built

- marine reconnaissance aircraft (6)
- 18 Torpedo-carrying biplane that gained distinction at Taranto and against the Bismark (9)
- 19 Early-war carrier-based two seat fighter/dive bomber (4)
- 20 Army co-operation aircraft famously operated as transport for delivering SOE Agents into France (8)
- 22 Napier-engined ground attack aircraft designed by Sydney Camm (7)
- 23 Fairey biplane bomber operated in Egypt (6)
- 24 Army co-operation

- autogyro built by Avro as a version of the Cierva C.30 (4)

Down

- 1 Name given to the Mitchell B-26 (8)
- 2 Night-fighter and intruder version of the Douglas Boston (5)
- 3 Four-engined heavy bomber (7)
- 5 Hawker army co-operation biplane (5)
- 6 RAF name for the Douglas A-20 (6)
- 7 Hawker biplane fighter (4)
- 10 US heavy fighter built by Republic (11)

- 11 Twin-engined version of the Avro Lancaster (10)
- 12 Carrier-based version of the Spitfire (7)
- 13 Twin-engined bomber built by Vickers (10)
- 14 Multi-role twin engined aircraft built mainly from plywood (8)
- 16 Largest of the RAF bomber force (8)
- 17 Carrier-based US-built fighter with distinctive gull wings (7)
- 21 Turret-armed version of 19 across (3)